FIRE COMPANY MEETINGS.—A called meeting of the Alexandria Steam Fire Engine Company was held last night, Richard L. Carr, Vice-President, in the chair, and Samuel Thompson acting as Secretary.
A communication from the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, announcing the death of their President, Capt. James M. Stewart, was received and read; whereupon the chairman gave a brief sketch of the life of the deceased and offered the following, which were unanimously adopted, viz:—
The members of the Alexandria Steam Fire Engine Company have heard with unfeigned sorrow the announcement of the death of the President of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, their own former President, Capt. James M. Stewart. Admitted to this company at the early age of sixteen he was, for several years, its most active and efficient member; never absent when work was to be done, ever prompt when danger was to be encountered, leaving his home at nineteen, he just more than a quarter of a century in distant States, but when he returned, a veteran of two great wars, he received his company with it, and his many years of arduous and successful service, his devotedness to his public duties, his unflinching courage, his public services, his devotedness to his place in our memories for ever.

It is therefore, unanimously
Resolved, That, in token of our sorrow, we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that our apparatus be draped in mourning and our flag be kept at half mast for a like period.
Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be transmitted to the sisters of the deceased and to the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, and that they be published in the city papers.

The Alexandria Steam Fire Engine Company met last night with Mr. McLean, President, in the chair, and S. J. Jenkins, Secretary, for the purpose of holding some action upon the death of Capt. J. M. Stewart.
A communication from the Relief Hook and Ladder Company announcing the death of the President of that company, Capt. James M. Stewart, was received and ordered to be read upon the minutes.
A resolution of sympathy to the Relief Hook and Ladder Company in the death of their deceased President was adopted, and the meeting then adjourned.

The Alexandria Reform Club.—The Alexandria Reform Club held a large and interesting meeting last night.
Mr. Mr. Deane presided and H. M. Folz acted as secretary.
After the transaction of some routine business, the report of the executive committee, showing a membership of over five hundred, was read by Mr. Pearson.
The newly elected officers of the club, heretofore published, were publicly inducted into office, Rev. Mr. Pearson conducting the ceremony in the most pleasant manner, charging each one to be faithful to the trust reposed in him.

Mr. H. M. Folz, the president elect, upon being inducted into office, made a brief and appropriate address, thanking the members for the honor conferred upon him, and pledging himself anew to the temperance work.
The exercises were interspersed with some excellent music by a choir of young ladies, under Miss Mamie Clark as organist.
It was announced that the arrangements for the anniversary celebration on the 18th inst. were progressing most favorably, and that a grand time was anticipated.
The meeting then adjourned with the benediction by Rev. Mr. Pearson.

THE ALEXANDRIA FAIR last week, notwithstanding the near approach of the National Exhibition, just over the river, was a really handsome display, and will worthy the large attendance that each day thronged the grounds, the merchants, manufacturers and citizens of the town generally derived great credit for their successful efforts in reuniting the main hall attractive, while the display of stock, poultry, fruit, vegetables, farming implements, &c., was excellent. The racing was so constrained to say, was very near a failure, in our judgment, nothing must of necessity be, but so contracted a course. The music, the torches, the military parade, and the nightly illuminations of the hall, added materially to the beauty and attractiveness of the exhibition.—Local Mr.

THE MARKET.—The market this morning was well supplied, but only tolerably well attended on the part of buyers. Prices were as follows: Best beef cuts 15c per lb; inferior 10c to 12c; veal cuts 15c per lb; chops and roasts 12c to 15c per lb; lamb 12c to 15c; pork chops 12c to 15c; corn beef 7c to 10c per lb; sausage 12c to 15c; puddings 10c per lb; apples 25c to 30c per bushel; quinces 60c per bushel; grapes 8c per lb; sweet potatoes 20c to 25c per bushel; Irish potatoes 25c to 30c per bushel; tomatoes 20c to 25c per bushel; turnips 15c per bushel; onions 50c per bushel; cabbage 2c to 3c per head; green corn 10c per dozen; corn plants 3c to 5c a piece; chutneys 8c to 10c per quart; butter 25c to 30c per lb; eggs 20c to 25c per dozen; chickens 20c to 30c a piece. The fish market was unusually well supplied with all varieties of the finny tribe.

REV. DR. J. J. BULLOCK AND THE UNION CHURCH.—The Maryland Presbyterian met in the basement of Franklin street Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, last night, to receive the request of Rev. Dr. Bullock, asking to be dissolved from further pastoral labors in the Union Presbyterian Church of this city. Rev. W. U. Murkland, of Franklin street Church, was moderator, with Rev. Mr. McMurray stated clerk. Dr. Bullock himself was present, as were also Messrs. B. H. Lambert and F. E. Corbett, commissioners from the Union Church, appointed to attend the meeting last night and act with the Presbytery on the question at issue.

After prayer by the moderator the clerk read the resolutions adopted by the Union Church at a meeting of the members of the congregation held in this city, September 28, relative to Dr. Bullock's request, heretofore published in the Gazette. The commissioners explained the state of affairs in this city, saying that the congregation were anxious that Dr. Bullock should stay with them, as they considered that without him the church would cease to exist. Dr. Bullock was called upon, and arising he declined very considerably the delicate position in which he stood toward the Union Church. He said that the congregation had entered some years ago into a compact with the First Church of Alexandria to occupy with their church, the vacant space on the 20th of September, and the Union congregation was without a place of worship. But that was not all. He hardly liked to speak of it, but there was such opposition to him by members of the First Presbyterian Church that he had concluded to resign a disinterested disinterested position. There was a man in Alexandria who commanded considerable influence. He was an office giver, and he had the committee of the First Presbyterian Church completely under his thumb. Though an avowed disbeliever in the dogmas and doctrines of the Presbyterian Church, an open seceder at its tenets, he was yet a powerful power. He exerted this influence over the committee of the First Church, and this committee, in its turn, made it most unpleasant for the Union Church. Alexandria, he said, was a very peculiar place. The people were all connected with one or other by blood ties, and although his congregation were steadfast in their support of him, yet the position he occupied was such an unpleasant one he prayed the presbytery to release him. In anticipation of this he had already removed to Washington. If he had already removed he could feel that he had a right to exhort the congregation to keep together. He would do all he could for it. His continued connection with the congregation would be its death.

Dr. Lefevre wished to know if the congregation would accept better were his connection discontinued. Dr. Bullock said he thought it would. The members were at present in a deplorable state. Many proposed to meet in a hall or such place as they could rent. He had heard of the avowed intention of going to the Episcopal and others to the Methodist Church. This would be sure death. If, however, they could join with the First Church (which was rather nothing) there was a chance for them. There were only a few members of this church, and the conditions on which they occupied their church was that as soon as they ceased to worship there, the property would go to the heirs and be sold. As long as he (Dr. Bullock) remained there the opposition entertained toward him by the First Church would prevent an occupation. Upon his removal, however, this would be done away with. Several objections to Dr. Bullock's dissolution were made, but they were all overruled, and after considerable debate, his connection with the church was unanimously dissolved.

On motion of Dr. Lefevre, Rev. James Nichols was appointed to preach to the Union Church, October 17, and declare the pulpit vacant. A committee, consisting of Rev. Drs. Lefevre, Murkland and McMurray, was appointed to write a pastoral letter to the Union Church, counselling harmony and good fellowship. On motion it was decided to allow the church to choose its own pastor. The Presbytery then adjourned.

THE LATE CAPT. J. M. STEWART.—At a meeting of the officers and employees of the United States House of Representatives and Senate held at the Capitol this morning Judge Green Adams was called to the chair and Jas. R. Fisher acted as secretary.
Judge A. W. C. Nowlin announced the death of Captain James M. Stewart, Postmaster of the House of Representatives, in a few feeling remarks and on his motion a committee of three, Messrs. W. T. Dorr, C. W. C. Donaghy and R. Henry were appointed a committee to prepare suitable resolutions.

The committee having reported the following preamble and resolutions which being seconded by Messrs. Adams, of the House, and Sargent, of the Senate, were unanimously adopted:—
Whereas, The officers and employees of the United States House of Representatives and Senate have heard with the deepest regret of the death of Capt. Jas. M. Stewart, Postmaster of the House, because he was not only their esteemed and respected colleague, but their devoted friend and cherished companion. Those who knew him intimately will not fail to be told that his death was never closed to the past or future, or his sympathy withheld from the afflicted and distressed. In an eventful career which embraced life on both shores of the American continent he made friends wherever he went, and the announcement of his death has excited sadness wherever he was known. In adopting resolutions expressive of their sorrow his fellow officers and employees of the House and Senate feel that they do so through a mere form, but rather that cold words fail to convey the real sorrow they feel at his death, therefore be it
Resolved, That in the death of Capt. Stewart the United States has lost a faithful and efficient officer, the State of Virginia one of the best and truest of her citizens, and his friends and relatives one whose place can never be filled in their affections.

2. That to his family we tender our heartfelt sympathy in their deep affliction, and as a testimonial of our regard for the deceased we will wear the usual mourning badge for 30 days.
3. That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to his sisters and that they be published in the Washington and Alexandria papers.
On motion the meeting adjourned.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:—
Susan Gibson, colored, charged with firing the house occupied by James Wood, corner of Alfred and Gibson streets, Thursday night last, was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury of the Corporation Court.
Mary Johnson, colored, for obscene and abusive language, was fined $5.
Jane Lytle, colored, for being drunk and abusive Sally Bayly, also colored, was fined $5.
The case of the restaurant keeper, charged with selling liquor to minors, was dismissed for want of evidence.

Wm. H. Dugan swore out a warrant before Justice Thompson this afternoon, charging Alfred Hill, colored, of Washington, with firing the house of Sarah Bodon, on Queen street, Thursday night last. Hill was dismissed at complainant's cost.

THE VIRGINIA MIDLAND RAILROAD.—In the Court of Appeals, in session at Staunton yesterday, the counsel for R. E. Gilbert, of New York, moved for a rehearing in the case of Gilbert against the W. C. V. M. & G. S. railroad, decided adversely to the appellant last Thursday, and the court granted them until Tuesday next to file their petition. In consequence of this action of the Court of Appeals Judge James Keith, before whom the case was to come to day for final adjudication, adjourned his court last night, and issued a warrant for a special term on Friday next.

THE NEW STEAMER.—The new steamer Excelsior, which left Wilmington, Del., where she was built for the Potomac Steamboat Company, yesterday arrived here to-day. The Excelsior stopped at the wharf of the steamer George Leary in this city for a short while.

The A. L. I. go to Baltimore, Oct. 13.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN J. M. STEWART.—The funeral of Captain James M. Stewart, Postmaster of the House of Representatives, took place this evening from his late residence on Cameron street, and was attended by a large concourse of persons including a number from Washington among whom were several of the officers and employees of the House. Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie officiated and the remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery.

THE CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE.—The conservative committee held a meeting last night at the Treasurer's office with Mr. J. W. W. Herbert in the chair and James R. Utson secretary, for the purpose of considering matters connected with the campaign, but without taking any action on the matters brought before them, for consideration, the committee adjourned to meet again at an early day.

PERSONAL.—John S. Bailey, of Harrisonburg, Va., a graduate of St. John's Academy, class of 1877, was in the city to day.
R. R. Farr, of Fairfax, was also in the city to day.

The A. L. I. go to Baltimore, Oct. 13.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPH NEWS

Political.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The World publishes answers from the Governors of nine Southern States in reply to letters addressed by its editor asking authority to append the names of those addressed to the following statement:

The undersigned cordially assents with the democratic candidate for the presidency that "no legislation providing for the consideration or payment of claims of any kind for losses or damages by persons who were in rebellion, whether pardoned or not," ought to be approved by him if elected to the presidency.

The World says: To this letter replies have already been received from the Governors of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas and Tennessee. The Governors of Florida, Virginia and West Virginia, being now absent from their homes their replies will be published when received. Gov. Hamilton and ex Gov. Carroll, of Maryland, like Senator Whyte of the same State have cordially indorsed in like manner the letter of Hancock, Governors Jeter, of South Carolina; Marks, of Tennessee; Stone, of Mississippi; Cobb, of Alabama; Jarvis, South Carolina; Colquitt, of Georgia; Wiltz, of Louisiana; Roberts, of Texas and Miller, of Arkansas, agreeing with Gen. Hancock's statement.
